Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bees and the Fertilization of Coffee The question of the value of bees in coffee districts was raised at the annual meeting in 1911 of the United Planters Association of Southern India, with particular reference to the effect on outturn of crop caused by the regular destruction of these bees in certain districts (notably the Shevaroys), such destruction being alleged to cause the very marked diminution in the number of bees which is perceptible in such districts. After some discussion, the following resolution was proposed by the delegate for the Shevaroys and seconded by the Nilgiri delegate and passed: That Government be asked through the United Planters Association of Southern India to pass some rules prohibiting the destruction of bees in planting districts. 2. The object of this resolution was to prevent or diminish the destruction of the bees themselves but not necessarily to place any impediments on the collection of honey or bees-wax. What was asked for was that Government should enforce rules in the coffee-planting districts to ensure that the bees themselves were...
