Sixth Day--Monday. On this day must be taken all subjects which could not be taken by the whole class on previous dates because of conflicts. It is to be understood that all of the examinations set for any day may be taken either in the forenoon or afternoon. One, two, or more classes may be examined in the forenoon and the remainder in the afternoon. No examinations will be given on Memorial Day--and when Memorial Day comes in examination week the examinations will be carried forward one day. II. All applications for questions, stating the subjects, and number of question papers desired, must be made to the High School Examiner at least fifteen days prior to the date set for beginning the examination. III. The envelope containing the questions must be retained by the superintendent or principal in a safe place until the time appointed for examination, and under no circumstances shall the envelope be opened except in presence of the class when seated and ready for work. The precise moment of the distribution of questions must be observed and announced to the class, as the examination proper begins at that time. IV. No more than three hours shall be allowed for an examination, and no examination shall be divided, nor shall any pupil be allowed extra time, a second trial, or to take the examination at any other time than that at which the class takes it. V.-The examination...
