Excerpt: . . . 12 during the class year, as part of the 12-hour rule that has since been included in the Department of Education regulations. The 50 percent rule will likely be incorporated, I think, into the higher education reauthorization process. In addition, as Mr. Stenholm and Mr. Goodlatte mentioned, the No Child Left Behind Act now in effect for the last year and a half, provided unprecedented flexibility for rural schools to combine funds and resources to meet their own unique needs. Funding for No Child Left Behind in the amount of 168 million is targeted to rural areas to leverage other resources, and furthermore, rural schools can transfer money out of their non-Title I programs to meet their highest priority needs in their schools, whether it be teacher training quality or technology. But all schools have the technology pot of funds based on their free and...
