

Santa Fe s Historic McKenzie Neighborhood (Paperback)

By Victoria Rogers, Cal Haines

Sunstone Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book speaks to lovers of art, Santa Fe, historic architecture, guidebooks, and books as art. The imaginative images are combined with historical documentation, illuminating the diverse period-architecture found in a simple crisscross of seven streets. The historic McKenzie Neighborhood is just a five-minute walk from the downtown Plaza, bordered by the Georgia O Keeffe Museum on Johnson Street. With its charming buildings, old-fashioned street lamps, bright hollyhocks and leggy branches of wild sunflowers along the sidewalks, and distant sounds of church bells or train horns, it s genuinely New Mexico, where not hurrying is a way of life. So, pause as you travel through the pages of this book, seeing the past with the eyes of now, and return to its treasures again and again. Creative collaborators Victoria Rogers and Cal Haines are responsible for the art, much of the writing and the concept for this book. Victoria s originality and eye for color, composition and refinement combined adeptly with Cal s technical, improvisational and rhythmic design skills to produce the imagery. Prior to this time,...
