A sudden explosion of diplomatic pride and, as we saw it done not so very long ago, we also may be plunged into a conflict without being adequately prepared. Foreign born students especially should bear in mind that their best opportunity for displaying loyalty to their newly-adopted country lies right at hand at this moment. In organizing a reserve dental corps in this country we would set a splendid example for preparedness in our own profession. And there is not the slightest doubt in my mind that our dental college, and perhaps all of the dental colleges in the United States, will take up the subject and get students and practitioners together. Our government will then see how our colleges are adding to the special training so much required of a modern European dental surgeon. No exemption from military service should be taken advantage of by a conscientious dental surgeon. Nothing should prevent him from volunteering for the noble cause mentioned, and he should ever hold himself in readiness when his country calls on him for his skilful aid. Legal Notice All suits for damages, slander, breach of promise, etc., outstanding against Kallenbron should be brought against Kallen, our editor's new name. Gesundheit with his new cognomen. The members of Congress acted wisely when they passed this bill, which is intended to safeguard the public in controlling the promiscuous abuse of narcotic drugs. This...
