Kirkus Reviews The text is so spare that it's more poetry than prose, and its understated presence allows the artwork to shine. The pages are filled with warm, earth-toned illustrations of adorable woodland creatures, inviting outdoor settings, and the endearing expressions of Frances Dean as she contemplates revealing what makes her so very happy. This sweet, simple book is an utterly charming reminder that giving the best parts of ourselves enriches the world around us. School Library Journal Charming pencil illustrations, colored digitally, in a variety of double-page spreads and small vignettes, are filled with lively action. . Children will applaud the girl's hopeful decision to act on what brings her joy.
