Why would Victoria Dourne strike up a friendship with Felicianna Grey, the woman who almost ruined the lives of Victorias mother and stepmother What started as mere curiosity on Victorias part has developed into much more. She and Felicianna have been chatting online a few months, and Felicianna thinks Victoria is a twenty-five-year-old secretary from Chicago, not the eighteen-year-old girl she is. Theyve bonded over the fact theyre both in love with women they cant have. Theyve even engaged in cybersex with each other. The online thing is getting old, though, and when Felicianna shows signs of losing interest, Victoria figures the time has come to tell the truth in person. Felicianna is horrified when Victoria confesses all. An eighteen-year-old girl! The stepdaughter of Feliciannas former best friend. The daughter of a woman Felicianna despises. This was what happened when Felicianna took risks. When she decided she could trust someone. Victoria begs Felicianna to give her a chance. Just one chance. A dinner. If, after that, Felicianna still wants Victoria to stay away, she will. Can Victoria persuade Felicianna to look past...
