The Twentieth Annual Convention of the National Metal Trades Association was held at the Hotel Astor, New York City, April 24th. and 25th, 1918, with an attendance of four hundred. Each session was marked by a spirit of patriotism and by a determination to give our utmost support to our country at this critical period, no matter what the sacrifice might be. President Van Dervoort called the Convention to order on the morning of Wednesday, April 24th. After an opening invocation by the Reverend Leighton Parks of New York, which was...
